

Accommodation – host family

Our carefully selected host families provide a personal environment where the new gained German skills can be applied and where it is possible to get in touch with the way of life in the foreign country.

We know all of the host families personally and with most of the families we have cooperated for many years.

New families are strictly verified by means of a list of quality criteria through our family supervisor. The quality standards of our families are also part of the certification by IALC.
